ITALIANS WILL STAND ON
PACT OF LONDON AWARDPREMIER ORLANDO OFF FOR ROME WHERE
HE WILL CALL SECRET SESSION OF
THE ITALIAN PARLIAMENT

ALLIED REPLY COMPLETED TONIGHT

By FRED S. FERGUSON

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, June 12—Premier Orlando and General Diaz left for Rome last night convinced that the work of the Big Five is practically completed and that no more fundamental decisions will be reached by that body concerning the peace settlement. This move on the part of the Italians was assumed to mean that the Allied reply to the German peace proposal would be definitely completed by night. The reply, it was learned, provides for Germany's admission to the League of Nations "within a short time." Foreign Minister Sonnino will replace Orlando if the latter does not return for the formal signing of the treaty.

Orlando, it was understood, intends to call a secret session of the Italian parliament to present his report of the work of the peace conference.

In Italian circles it was reported that the Jugo-Slavs having refused to agree to the compromise on the Adriatic question drawn up by Col. House and Andre Tardieu, Premier Orlando wrote to President Wilson, Lloyd George and Premier Clemenceau asking strict execution of the act of London. The pact of London does not provide regarding Fiume.

PARIS, June 12—The Allied commission appointed to draft the reply to the German counter proposals began work this morning after receiving nine reports from the Big Four upon which to base information of the document. The personnel of the commission includes: Hudson, United States; Kerr, Great Britain; Tardieu, France; Vantelli Italy, and Sabouri Japan. A semi-official note today said the reply will be handed to Foreign Minister Bruckdorn-Rantau either Sunday evening or Monday night with an eight day limit for the Germans to sign.

REMARKABLE DEMONSTRATION PRECEDES HANGING

TORONTO, Canada, June 13—Following a demonstration such as had never been seen in this city before, Frank McCullough, aged 24, of Youngstown, Ohio, was today hanged for the murder of Acting Detective Williams on November 19, last. McCullough went to the scaffold with a smile on his face and died with "Good bye God bless you" on his lips.

Five thousand people crowded around the jail last night cheering for the condemned man who had a great deal of sympathy. Time and time again he appeared at the cell window saluting the crowd.

GOVERNOR PROCLAIMS
SATURDAY FLAG DAY

HARRISBURG, June 12—Governor William C. Sproul today issued this statement on Flag Day:

The observance of Flag Day this year promises to be more widespread than ever before, and I urge upon every patriot to display the Stars and Stripes next Saturday, both in honor of the flag that we revere and out of respect to the 80,000 loyal Americans who laid down their lives on the battlefields of France in its defense.

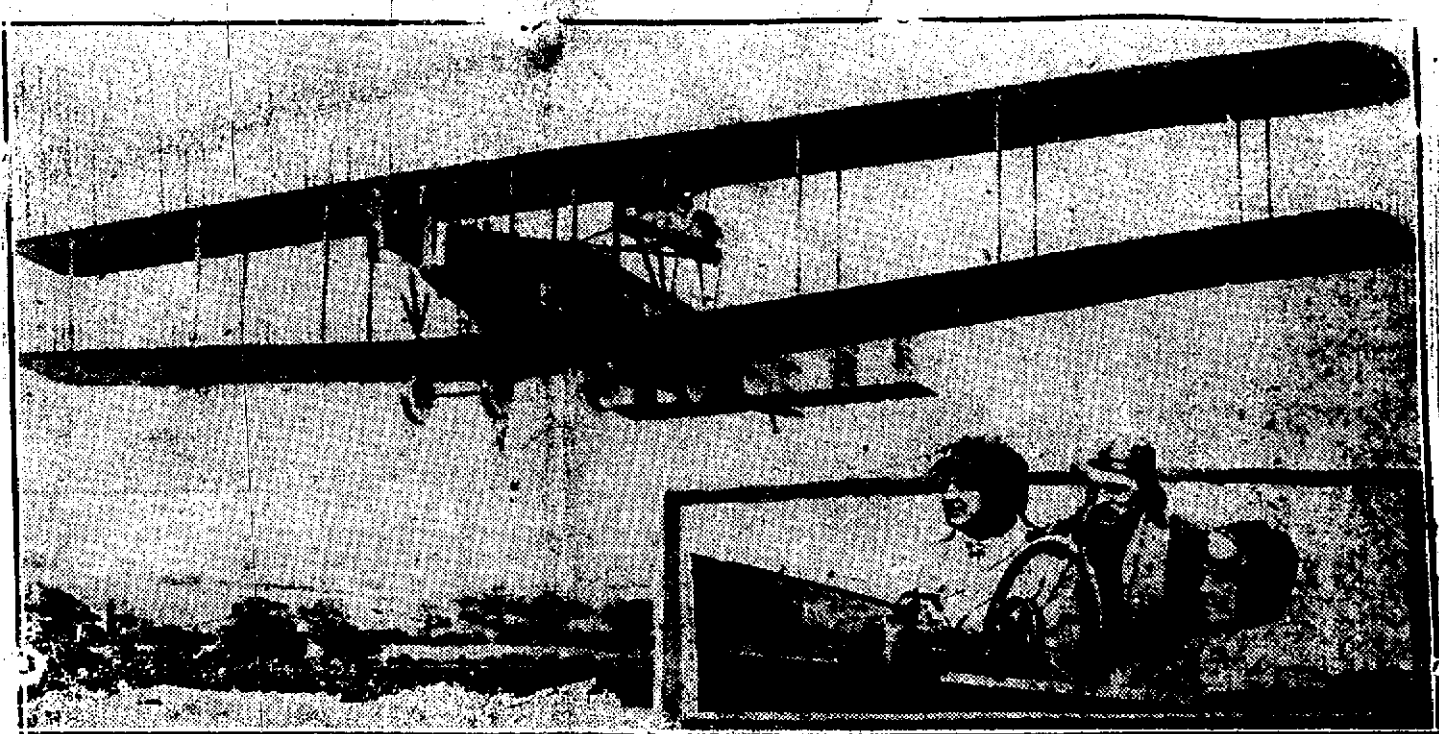

The stars are brighter than ever and Americans never had more occasion to be proud of their national colors.

PITTSBURGH UNIVERSITY

Governor W. C. Sproul delivered the commencement address. He also received an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws.

BOMBS FOUND IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, June 13.—Police today are investigating the finding of nine hand made bombs under a thin layer of coal shipped from Coxon, Pa. Detectives believe the bombs were shipped in preparation for a demonstration by radicals.

ANARCHY AND ANARCHISTS NOT PURE
AMERICAN PRODUCT: OVERSEAS IMPORT

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—The recent bomb outrages occurring simultaneously in half a dozen cities, following on the heels of the earlier attempt on the lives of public officials and others by the sending of infernal machines through the mails, is regarded as evidence of the existence of an anarchistic organization in America of wider scope than any known to exist heretofore.

Surprising as it may seem to the uninformed public, there has never been known to exist in this country any general organization of anarchists. True, whenever out of the country's masses of ignorant aliens some leopards or fanatic have hurled a bomb or otherwise attempted to slay some leader of the people, there has gone forth a hue and cry that organized anarchy was rife.

But invariably the investigation has disclosed the fact that the outrage was the act of an individual, or at most, of a small group. Such groups have been known to exist for years past in numerous cities, including Paterson, N. J., Baltimore, Philadelphia, Harre, Vt., and the Massachusetts cities of Lynn, Lawrence and Fitchburg. New York and Chicago have always had their Anarchists, but in these two largest cities so numerous they have been either so numerous or so active as in some of the smaller cities.

Among the groups of Anarchists in the different cities there has never been known to exist any real connection or co-ordination of activities. Each group has worked separately. Many cases have contributed to this result, but probably the chief one is the racial differences. In New York the Anarchists are largely Russian Jews, with a sprinkling of Letts, Spaniards, Italians and other nationalities. In Baltimore, Philadelphia, Harre and other cities they have been mostly Italians. In Paterson the anarchistic group is made up chiefly of Letts. In various cities of Massachusetts and in the copper region of upper Michigan they are Finns.

The Anarchist has no vernacular, no means of intercommunication. A convention of all the Anarchists in the United States—and there are many thousands of them—would be a veritable Babel, a confusion of tongues unsurpassed. Furthermore, these people coming from all parts of Europe, have been imbued with differing ideals. There are as many kinds of anarchism as there are of socialism. Any unanimity among these men and women, which would be a necessary element in forming a general organization, would be impossible.

Among those best acquainted with Anarchists and their ways the opinion prevails that the recent outrages were not the work of branches of the same organization existing in the different cities, but in all probability were accomplished by members of on group existing in Philadelphia or some other eastern city, and who were sent on their last day missions to Washington, New York, Boston and other cities where the outrages occurred.

Existing laws are considered fully adequate for the suppression of anarchy. In 1907 the Postoffice Department was given authority to stop the publication and circulation of the extreme socialist publications which were the chief means for spreading the anarchistic doctrine. In the same

CUBS AND WHITE SOX

By L. R. BLANCHARD

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

CHICAGO, June 13. (United Press)—If F. P. Mitchell were an M. D. this sometimes human race would soon become a queer looking thing. For Fred F., bosso supreme of the Chicago Cubs, believes in revolution rather than evolution for getting results. If what he does to the Cubs is a criterion he would, as a surgeon, shift for feet, hands for hair and give the ears an occasional tryout as legs. That's his style.

The Cubs were touted as natural born, hereditary leaders of the National league this season. The touting didn't take for more than a week. There was some ill luck and a little—a very little—bum playing by the Cubs. Then the team began to lose standing, at home, abroad and especially in the percentage tables. An eastern trip resulted in a string of losses so that the Cubs quickly descended into the second division and old neighbors began to gossip about the family.

Thus far this year Sgt. Bill Killefer looks like about 95 per cent. of the $100 the stockholders have expended for players in late years. Sgt. Alexander has been tuff-lucked outright; Turner Barber, former Baltimore outfielder, began to forget how to hit when the pitchers began to remember how to throw, and Chuck Workman, priceless shortstop, went back to the minors for a price.

Commander Mitchell has gone thru his lineup a dozen times since the season opened, put in new gears and then the old ones again. Still the engine sounds rather sour. But Mitchell hasn't quit hoping and believing. He has the pitchers—when they finally get to pitching consistently—and he has a starstop and an ordinarily good, non-startout fielder. There is a belief the Cubs will rise again.

Well, anyway, Chicago has a league leader in the White Sox, doomed by the winter leaguers to the second division just as conclusively as the Cubs were awarded first place in the other league.

William "Kid" Gleason is given most of the credit for the showing. It is the "Kid's" way to fight for every ball game and he has put some of his spirit into his men.

At the same time the Sox were more fortunate with their pitchers than they had hoped. Eddie Cicotte is going in 1917 style. "Red" Faber is coming back. "Lefty" Williams has discovered new strength to take him all the way through a ball game and there are the youngsters Shellenback and Kerr, the latter left handed. Gleason also is confident of making a genuine major leaguer of Grover Lowdermilk, one of the in-and-outers of the majors.

Back of these hurlers Gleason has a dependably fielding set of infielders and gardeners. Added to that some of those fellows certainly can "bust" that ball. The whole gang is captained by Eddie Collins, well known member of the marine corps. The Sox so far have been a lot more dangerous than a glow worm in a power factory.

With the Cubs expected to come right back and with the White Sox out in front Chicago is a baseball city again. The fans haven't had much chance. The weather has been somewhat obstinate and those who panned their bennies on March 21 could hardly sit out in the open for a two hour game. But the first two warm Sundays of the year saw 44,000 persons sitting in Mr. Comiskey's corral.

SALARY BOOSTER
FOR STATE JUDGES

HARRISBURG, June 12.—House bills reported from the senate appropriations committee increase salaries of all judges in Pennsylvania.

All judges, county, superior and supreme, receiving $10,000 or more a year will be given an increase of $1,000 a year except the chief justice of the supreme court, whose salary is raised $1,500 making it $15,000. The increase will make the salary of the other members of the supreme court $14,000.

Under the increase the president judge of the superior court will receive $13,500 and the other members of the court $13,000.

Judges receiving less than $10,000 will receive an increase of $1,000. The salary of the president judges of the county court of Allegheny and the president judge of the Philadelphia municipal court are raised from $8,500 to $9,500, and the salaries of the other judges in these two courts are increased from $6,000 to $8,000.

LOCAL CHURCHMAN
ELECTED MODERATOR

The local delegates to the annual convention of the Clearfield Baptist Association meeting, which was held at Sykesville, Pa., returned home yesterday.

The Clearfield Baptist Association is composed of all the Baptist congregations of Clearfield, Jefferson and several adjoining counties. This meeting was largely attended and much business of interest to Baptists generally was transacted.

The reports from the different churches showed a very healthy growth spiritually while encouraging progress was made financially and materially despite war conditions the past year.

Clearfield and the local Baptist congregation was signally honored in the unanimous selection of our townsman William P. Sheeder as Moderator. Mr. Sheeder is the first lay Moderator to be chosen in the history of the association.

Mr. Sheeder has been active in Baptist work in this district for the past twenty years and this recognition of his efficient service in the cause of Christianity is gratifying to his hosts of Clearfield friends both in and outside of his church.

Rev. George E. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist church of Clearfield was elected the delegate to represent the Association at the State Convention to be held at Scranton in September.

GET UP EARLY TO SEE THAT AIRPLANE

That U. S. Martin bombing plane, on its one-stop flight from the Atlantic to the Pacific, should pass over Clearfield about 6:36 tomorrow morning, if the schedule published in The Progress a week or more ago is followed and no accidents occur.

The army, thrilled by the successful flight of the naval NC-4 across the ocean will attempt in this proposed test to make a world's record for sustained distance flight overland, and if nothing intervenes the big Martin bomber will leave the aviation field at Mineola, Long Island at 3:30 Saturday morning and is expected to make the following schedule over this section of Pennsylvania: Millmont, 5:41; Coburn, 5:55; Bellefonte, 6:05; Philipsburg, 6:10; Mitchell, 6:29; Clearfield, 6:36; Grampian, 6:45; Redbank, 7:14; East Brady, 7:17; Euclid, 7:30; New Castle, 7:47.

The one stop to be made is at North Platte, Nebraska.

Get up early tomorrow morning and look for the history maker.

VICTORY GARDENERS
SHOULD READ THIS

Every boy and girl interested in Victory Gardens should read the following.

MESSAGE

Boys and Girls of the UNITED STATES SCHOOL GARDEN ARMY from:

Dr. J. H. Francis,
Director, U. S. S. G. A.
This old world is tired and sick and hungry. The war has left a frightful wound on the face of civilization that will take time and work and care to heal without leaving an ugly scar. You helped to win the war, and now you will help to heal the wounds it made. Millions of boys and girls in Europe are sick and dying because they do not have enough to eat. Hundreds of thousands are actually starving. Until they are well fed our work as a garden army is not finished. It will take years before this can be done. By growing gardens in times of peace you are still helping to fight the great battles of democracy for democracy is not safe while people are hungry. You are not only helping others but you are learning some of the most valuable lessons that can be learned. While doing your part to help the world you are gaining knowledge and power that will make you a bigger, better, stronger man or woman.

Let us put our garden flag in the home of every American boy and girl and show our country that we wish to pull our share of the load.

PENNSYLVANIA SHOULD AT LEAST BE FOURTH

Hon. Joseph E. Phillips is to be commended for his determined effort to have the House at Harrisburg ratify the Woman's Suffrage amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Representative Phillips made two attempts to get a ratifying resolution before the House, but as unanimous consent was necessary before it could be introduced his efforts met with failure when several members objected.

A rather has been introduced in the Senate and Pennsylvania now has a chance to be the fourth state in line for votes for women as three different Commonwealths have already ratified.

THE FISHERMEN'S LICENSE LAW

The bill providing for a fishermen's license in Pennsylvania passed the House at Harrisburg this week and is now in the Senate for final action there. This bill provides a license fee of $1.00 for all fishermen over 16 years of age. Farmers and their families are exempted of tax for fishing in waters upon which their farm lands abut.

This law is being advocated by the State Fisheries department and fishermen generally throughout the state who see in this plan the only way to properly stock and propagate game and food fishes in the waters of the state. Under present conditions the appropriation made by the state to the Fisheries department is entirely too small to be effective and our streams are rapidly being depopulated.

It is estimated that this fish license law will raise annually between $300,000 and $400,000 and with this sum available each year Commissioner Buller will soon be able to make Pennsylvania's streams what the disciples of old Izaak Walton would like to see them.

STARKING OF THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

Kansas has started harvesting its wheat, which promises to be nearly one fourth of the total winter-wheat crop of the United States. Never in the history of the State has it looked for such rich returns from the millions of acres that have been planted. Half the population of the United States could be fed for a year on the flour made from wheat grown on the farms of one Western State.

It is reasonable to hope that the retail price of flour will soon take a drop in view of this immense wheat yield?

We were promised a drop in the retail price of beef some time ago, but it has failed to arrive as yet. Possibly the following will give the reason:

While prices are being maintained at higher levels than ever before, the packing interests of the country are holding in cold storage 1,399,000 pounds of meat and meat products and 46,000,000 pounds of chicken.

This charge was made on the floor of the House by Representative Fess, of Ohio, yesterday. He said the figures were furnished him by the bureau of markets of the department of Agriculture.

Mr. Fess declared these figures revealed a startling condition adding: My observation is that meats are higher than ever before. There ought to be some way to get at this situation. If the department of the government will not take action this Congress ought to enact persuasive legislation."

THE FARMER'S BOY

Mr. Farmer does your boy like the farm?
He does if given a square deal.

Don't wait till you die, don't wait till your boy is twenty-one before giving him a start.

The secret of making your boy happy on the farm is in getting him interested young.

If you have a boy ten years old, give him a cow, at twelve give him a cow, at sixteen a mare. Let him have all the increase to sell or breed and let him have his own bank account. Try it.

DUTCH COLONIAL HOUSE POPULAR

Fine Type of Home for City or Farm.

OWNER HAS MOST FOR MONEY

Design is Suited to Needs of Family of Average Size—Roominess of Interior a Prominent Feature.

Mr. William A. Radford will answer questions and give advice FREE OF COST on all subjects pertaining to the subject of building, for the readers of this paper. On account of his wide experience as Editor, Author and Manufacturer, he is, without doubt, the highest authority on all these subjects. Address all inquiries to William A. Radford, No. 1821 Prairie Avenue, Chicago, Ill., and only enclose three-cent stamp for reply.

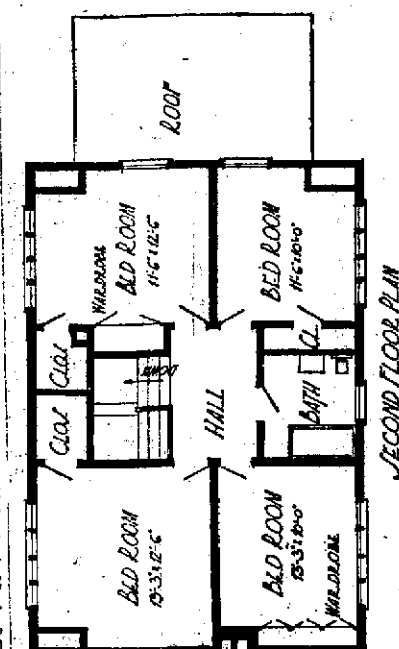

There are many reasons why the prospective home builder should at once select the plan of the house he wants and start construction now. Building materials are higher in price than they were two years ago, but not as high as they were last fall. Labor costs a little less than it did in October, 1918. And coupled with these reasons is the fact that there will be no change during the present year in the price of materials, with a strong probability that they will go higher next year. This last statement is based on the fact that the costs of a majority of necessities have risen during the first four months of the year. Building material prices, however, have been stabilized, that is, they will go neither higher nor lower.

Many persons who want to build a home, and have determined on building, now that the restrictions have been removed by the government, have been doubtful about the advisability of building now. Those doubts are dispelled by the stabilizing of prices and the fact that labor is plentiful, if not cheap.

In selecting the type of home to build, every owner should take into consideration the size of house he needs, the size of lot he has upon leading to the second floor. To the left is the living room, with a den off it, and at the right is the dining room and sun parlor, the kitchen adjoining. The living room is of good size, being 13 feet 3 inches, by 16 feet. The fireplace is in the outside wall and has two windows on either side, which, coupled with the three that can be seen in the perspective make it a light and cheerful room. The den adjoining is 12 feet 6 inches, by 8 feet 6 inches.

The dining room is 13 feet 3 inches, by 14 feet 6 inches. Double doors open into the living porch, which is 15 feet by 8 feet 6 inches. This porch is equipped with glazed windows for winter use and is screened in the summer. It can be used either as a living porch or as a dining porch.

The kitchen is 11 feet 6 inches, by 8 feet and has a good-sized pantry adjoining.

On the second floor are four good-sized bedrooms opening off a center hall, and the bathroom.

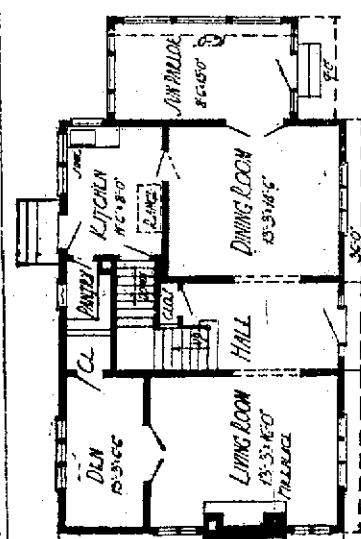

The basement extends under the whole house, with the exception of the living porch.

This house will suit the needs of the moderately large family and is equally suitable for the city, small town or the farm. Its cost is moderate which to put it, and the style of architecture best suited to that lot. These considerations, however, carry little weight in the country where space is not so costly as in the city.

Illustrated herewith is the type of home that is in great demand in both the city and country. The Dutch colonial house is popular because of its balanced elegance and the fact that the owner gets the utmost for his money in room and convenience. Just what an attractive exterior appears once this type of house has been shown by the illustration, while the roominess of the interior is disclosed by the floor plan.

This house is of wood frame covered with shingles to the foundation sill. It will be noted that the house is perfectly balanced. The entrance door is in the center of the building, while on either side are the same number of windows. The sloping Dutch roof, that has a graceful sweep from ridge to second floor sill, and the jutting windows take away the plain appearance without adding the extra cost that is incurred to accomplish the same result with an old-fashioned building. The addition of the dining room is a featured appeal.

The dimensions of this house are only 36 by 24 feet, but it contains eight rooms and bath beside the large sun parlor. The entrance leads into a center hall, in which are the stairs compared with many other houses that will accommodate the same number of people and it is an exceptionally attractive home from an exterior point of view. Every modern convenience also is provided.

This design is susceptible to several changes that might suit the builder. The den can be eliminated and the living room extended across the whole end of the house. The same may be done with the bedrooms, making all large and more airy. By consulting the local architect, or the contractor who is a practical architect these changes can easily be made. Engaging an architect is always good business for the home builder. These experts in building give the prospective builder many valuable hints that will save money and prevent disappointment.

The cost of this house can quickly be found by consulting the local material dealer. Prices of all materials and of labor differ in different localities, so an estimate that would be correct in one place would not be in another. The difference is brought about by the difference in freight rates from the source of supply.

There are many arguments in favor of every family owning and living in their own home. Rents are based on the amount of money invested in the building, the cost of upkeep, plus a profit for the owner. Home building associations and real estate dealers and bankers always are ready to help the man of family with a little capital to build his home. The cost is paid the same as rent.

The satisfaction and comfort that come to the home owner are well worth the small sacrifices required to secure a home. And when that home is paid for the owner has an asset that cannot be measured in dollars. He is one of the good substantial members of his community—one of the men who has the interest of his home town at heart. It certainly pays to own a home.

Strict Obedience.

A sergeant going on his rounds one morning was surprised to see one of his men in a bath with a bottle in his hand. On being asked what he was doing, the man replied that he had reported sick the previous morning, and the doctor had ordered him to take his medicine twice a day in water, and he was simply carrying out the doctor's orders.

SOME CHURCHES WILL SEND THEIR PASTORS

BALTIMORE, MD., June 13.—Practically every church in this Methodist Episcopal area will be represented by their pastors and groups of members at the great Methodist Centenary celebration at Columbus, Ohio, June 20 to July 13.

District superintendents have reported to Centenary headquarters here that the Washington Area, made up of Central Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia and West Virginia, will be largely represented.

Hundreds of churches have arranged to finance the trips of their pastors to Columbus. This is particularly true of the smaller parishes having budgets much lower than in the large city church districts. The Centenary campaign which will be brought to a climax by the jubilee festivities at Columbus, has had the effect of recruiting thousands of Methodist constituents into the ranks of active stewardship.

Methodism in every community in America is to be represented at the gigantic exposition. The celebration which extends over a period of twenty-four days will attract not less than 150,000 people. Plans have been completed to accommodate that number. The rush of applicants for reservations both in the hotels and private homes, and the great "tent city" erected by the Centenary committee, strongly indicate that fully 200,000 may attend the celebration before its close.

The railroad administration has just announced a special rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip to Columbus from all parts of the United States while the celebration is in progress. While thousands will avail themselves of this attractive rate to take in the "Methodist World's Fair," other thousands will proceed to the exposition in automobile caravans.

PROHIBITION RESTS ON A SOLID BASIS

Prohibition rests on a solid basis. It is not a mushroom growth due to the war, and most of the successes of Prohibition were achieved before the war. Nor is the movement for Prohibition today primarily an emotional movement. It rests rather on the solid-bolstered calculations of the scientist, the statistician, the economist, the public health officer, the industrial manager and the military expert. Liquor is as doomed, and doomed for good, as slavery. Conservatives will understand it all after it all has happened. Now, it seems to them impracticable, just as, a generation ago, the destruction of the Chinese opium traffic seemed impracticable.

TO SHIP 375,000 BACK IN MONTH OF JUNE

PARIS, June 11.—General Pershing has advised that he proposes to transport 375,000 men homeward during June. This will surpass all previous records for moving troops overseas and exceeds the number Great Britain sent across the Channel in any month.

The total number of people that the world can maintain is estimated at six billions, or about four times the present population. At the present rate of increase, this figure will be reached in some two hundred years.

So prolific is the common or domestic fly that in a single season one industrious female could count her progeny to twenty millions if all survived and followed her example of maternity.

ONE little fairie and an imp or two make mothers sigh for old barefoot days and daddy frown when he gets bills.

ALL CHILD WEAR COSTLY

BY MARGARET RHODE
(Written for The United Press)

Junior needs a pair of oxfords, Bud must be reshoed, Buckskin pumps needs Dorothea, Little "gift of God," Tottie must have bigger sandals, Jim and Jerry too; Even so the little Fordlet Wants a new rear shoe. Really is it any wonder Daddy gets the blues And also hocks the family jewels When the kids need shoes

NEW YORK, June 6.—If you have a little fairy in your home with perhaps an imp or two to boot you are no doubt seriously contemplating availing the Kneipe cure or sending them out to Tennessee to have 'em turned into barefoot dancers.

But after all, why kick on the boots alone, since all the garments appertaining to a child's wardrobe are twice as expensive proportionately as grownups? Though they are dear monetarily they are also so dear affectionately that you just can't resist 'em.

Time was when a sheer white hand-made slip with a touch of real lace insertion and edging was the acme of elegance for any and all children irrespective of type. Nowadays designers for small folks are just as important as designers for big folks and it is just as essential that the type of frock should fit the wee wearers' personality.

We have departed far from the English costume of dressing our offspring in chaste white, and, following the French fashion, we now deck them out in all colors of the rainbow, from orange and cerise down to black and lavender. Black taffeta frocks are indeed very chic enlivened with gay yarn embroidery and an organdie dress of orchid or mauve, fluffily ruffled and sashed and scrippled, is perfect for an heiress from three to eight.

The French models are mostly straight lined little affairs, very brief as to skirt and very scant as to fullness. They all show some striking embroidery of brilliant hued yarn or silk or else some unique color combinations of materials.

A quaint little dress of pale blue Japanese cotton crepe has a short waist and low round neck and armholes outlined with scallops or pink yard crochet and is worn over a little white organdie guimpe, edged with tatting. The same model comes in a rose crepe with Chinese blue yarn scallops or an orange with scallops of lavender.

A dashing little Nile green linen with collar, cuffs, pockets and yoke splashed with the green and cerise or embroidered cherries and topped off with a poke of green raffia bobbing with the same delectable fruit cause; various shades of green envy to sport in other breasts as its fair own or haunted its cherry charms in the Park the other day.

The cunning fluffly ruffle frocks of sprigged daisy, pink rosebudded voile and cross barred organdie, in all heavenly shades, turn their fortunate little possessors into animated flower bells or butterflies. Quaint effects of grandmotherly chints and English print in gay colors are chic and bizarre and perfect apparel indeed for the black-haired, gypsyesque little maid, as the fluffly frocks adorn more fittingly the pink and white perfection of Miss Goldenlocks.

As for the little Beau Drummels, they still strut in khaki attire or swagger in the starched white or navy blue of the Jack tar. They are great sticklers for the proper insignia, however, and woe be it to the short sighted mother who has purchased an English sailor suit for her young hopeful. Her life is made a hideous burden until the royal insignia is ripped from the sleeve and replaced with the screaming eagle and white stars must shine from each corner of the collar or all will not be well with the world.

Comb Sage Tea Into Gray Hair

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre at Once

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrous and you appear years younger.

EDUCATIONAL FILM VERY INSTRUCTIVE

Build Motor Cars and Liberty Motors Before Your Eyes

Everybody today either owns a motor car or expects to own one some day. Almost everybody can "speak the language." But the knowledge of the general public with reference to motor cars is largely confined to what the motor car will do in business or family service.

There is another side to the motor car that is just as wonderful—indeed even more wonderful to many people—and that is the manner in which it is built up from ores and alloys, cloth and rubber, wood and leather, into an energetic, untiring, faithful servant with more than human endurance, and almost living in its response to the wishes of its driver.

A series of five educational features, recently adopted by the United States government in its educational work, starts this week at the Driggs Theatre tomorrow, showing how motor cars are built by one of the largest builders of motor cars. Beginning with the raw materials, the progress of the different parts is shown through the foundry, the drop force hammer, to various heat-treating, machine and grinding departments, until finally the machine runs off under its own power, complete to the last detail.

Nothing is slighted to make this series complete, even to laying bare the mystic operations of the analytical chemist, the metallurgist, and the intricate testing apparatus in the physical and electrical laboratories.

One of the later features will show how Liberty motor cars were built for Uncle Sam's airplanes during the recent war.

Mr. Lacey lived in Lanesboro now famous for its military training during the war. He served during the whole four years of the war receiving his discharge in 1835; was wounded twice, taken prisoner at Fair Oak and participated in 31 battles.

FESTIVAL A SUCCESS

The ice cream and cake festival of the Second Ward Hose company last evening was very well attended and as a result thereof the company treasury has a much more healthy appearance today.

Messrs. Ralph Gulien and H. B. Hartwick were hosts to the kiddos at the Children's Home and took great delight in watching about four dollars worth of ice cream and cake disappear before the onslaught of the happy kids.

Mrs. Maude Powell, Sunday school teacher, will hold a food and cake sale in the Hugerty building Saturday afternoon June 14th.

After the fall of Emperor Nicholas, successive Russian revolutionaries, who held brief power, transferred great sums of money to Sweden, in expectation of the time when they would have to pack up their traps and flee. It is said that one Swedish bank alone holds fifty millions of dollars of Russian gold in this way, and very properly refuses to yield it to the original depositors, who most certainly stole it.

Recipe To Clear A Pimply Skin

Pimples Are Impurities Seeking An
Outlet Through Skin Pores

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples. The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

C. A. Rorbaugh is having his residence property re-painted and touched up inside. Jack Frost is also repainting his dwelling.

Clarence Ammerman arrived home yesterday after an almost two years service in the army. Part of his term of service was spent overseas.

Business conditions in Curwensville are not on the decrease by any means, according to reports received from merchants who claim that this month is bringing them an increase of trade and that sales are much larger now than this time last year.

Miss Ruth LaPorte entertained a number of her lady friends at her home last evening.

Miss Ida Swartz, a professional nurse who has been connected with the hospital service over seas and on the firing line for the past two years, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Dale on River street. Miss Swartz, during her army experience, passed through the danger zone on the firing line and in field hospitals scenes that seldom fall to the lot of young lady nurses, and could her work and what she passed through during her two years service be written and put in book form would make an interesting volume, historically.

Clyde Thompson, who sells shoes, etc., for a large wholesale house west of the Mississippi river, is here on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Harry Brown, of Scofield street. His headquarters are in the city of Omaha, Neb., and the territory over which he travels takes him through many states west of the mighty river and south almost to New Orleans.

The Crescent band gave an outdoor concert last evening on the lawn east of the Park hotel. Their music was appreciated by the large number of people who stood on the street for more than an hour listening to them.

The condition of Nolan Bloom, who has been so ill for the past nine weeks with typhoid fever, and whose death was looked for most any day for the past three weeks, is reported much better this morning and now hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Reports from the Ashley Bloom home at Lumber City last evening was to the effect that Mrs. Bloom was now past the danger line and would be well in a week or so.

Our thanks, as well as those of John Pifer and Editor Bixler, are due to Merritt Caldwell for a delightful auto ride yesterday evening, the route being up the new road to Bloomington and a mile or so beyond the Clearfield road and return by the old original road, striking town via Eastgate. The farm products all along the route showed up finely and from present indications promises to reward the farmer bountifully for his labor. The fruit crop is almost a total failure, the heavy frosts about the time the trees were in blossom freezing the buds.

BIGLER vs. HARBISON-WALKER TOMORROW

PROGRESSIVES IN SENATE PICK JOHNSON FOR NOMINATION IN 1920 ELECTIONS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Senator Hiram Johnson, California, is the candidate of senate progressive leaders for the Republican nomination for President in 1920. Senators Borah and Kenyon joined today in this announcement, declaring they spoke for all the senate progressives and for a group of liberals scattered through a number of states.

These men have already begun active campaigns to line up the liberal support of the country behind Johnson it was stated. The call recently issued by California friends of Johnson for a meeting to launch his candidacy, is part of the general campaign, progressive senators stated.

Johnson's supporters plan, Borah said, to go immediately into all states where the primary for election of delegates to the national convention prevails in hope of getting an early test of Johnson sentiment.

"Progressives have been uniting on Johnson for the past two or three months," said Borah today. "His speech on the league of nations brought the matter to a climax. From all over the country men of liberal beliefs have been writing in and some of them have come here for conferences."

"The result is that Senator Johnson is our candidate. He has the absolutely undivided support of senate progressives."

Borah made it plain that he has never been a candidate for the nomination, though his name has been mentioned in practically every discussion of prospective Republican aspirants.

The platform upon which progressives will put Johnson forward at the Republican convention is to contain among others the following planks, Progressives stated:

1. No permanent entangling alliances with Europe and no meddling by Europe in American affairs.

2. Immediate return of all American troops from abroad, particularly from Russia.

3. Complete restoration of free speech, a free press and the right of peaceable assembly.

4. A labor program based on cooperation and a greater interest of the workers in the industries which their toil creates.

Johnson today declined to comment on the announcement of his friends.

Praying by electricity is now practiced by the Buddhists in India. The prayers, written on long bands of paper, are wrapped round a wheel and each turn of the wheel is equivalent to one repetition of the prayer. The pious native believes that the greater number of revolutions of his prayer-wheel the better his prayers will be answered, and he either turns it by hand or lets the wind or water turn it. To overcome the difficulty when the water-courses run dry and to safeguard the religious customs and traditions of the natives, the government now compels the electric companies to equip the prayer-wheels with motors, and supply the necessary current to turn them during the dry season free of all charge to the natives.

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up with out a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.

Sport Hats and Others

Because the late summer hat takes its cue from the sport hat, and resembles it more or less, it is sometimes difficult to make up one's mind just which of the last millinery arrivals are to be classed as sport styles. But no one is concerned about the matter. "Late summer" includes everything the shops show, from now until early fall is ushered in, and "sport styles" are worn almost everywhere. The late summer hat is not burdened with much trimming, for it must contrive to look cool. There are exceptions to this rule in hats and trimmings made of the richest fabrics, among the best of which are hats, but generally the late summer hat has a flavor of outdoor-campings, jauntiness—and divides popularity with sport styles that serve the same purposes.

In the group of hats shown here a beghorn faced with white crepe georgette leads off. It is a simple affair so far as trimming is concerned, for it has a band of ribbon about the crown with flat ornaments set at intervals unalike it. At the top an ornamental hat that will look good in August weather catches the eye. If you are considering a sport hat give attention to the new and picturesque models called "tapestry hats" that are made of cretonne, with brims faced with braid. They are beautiful and practical and full of color, but untrimmed, except for a band of narrow ribbon, usually of velvet, about the crown.

ITALIANS WILL STAND ON
PACT OF LONDON AWARDPREMIER ORLANDO OFF FOR ROME WHERE
HE WILL CALL SECRET SESSION OF
THE ITALIAN PARLIAMENT

ALLIED REPLY COMPLETED TONIGHT

By FRED S. FERGUSON

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, June 12—Premier Orlando and General Diaz left for Rome last night convinced that the work of the Big Five is practically completed and that no more fundamental decisions will be reached by that body concerning the peace settlement. This move on the part of the Italians was assumed to mean that the Allied reply to the German peace proposal would be definitely completed by night. The reply, it was learned, provides for Germany's admission to the League of Nations "within a short time." Foreign Minister Sonnino will replace Orlando if the latter does not return for the formal signing of the treaty.

Orlando, it was understood, intends to call a secret session of the Italian parliament to present his report of the work of the peace conference.

In Italian circles it was reported that the Jugo-Slavs having refused to agree to the compromise on the Adriatic question drawn up by Col. House and Andre Tardieu, Premier Orlando wrote to President Wilson, Lloyd George and Premier Clemenceau asking strict execution of the act of London. The pact of London does not provide regarding Fiume.

PARIS, June 12—The Allied commission appointed to draft the reply to the German counter proposals began work this morning after receiving nine reports from the Big Four upon which to base information of the document. The personnel of the commission includes: Hudson, United States; Kerr, Great Britain; Tardieu, France; Vantelli Italy, and Sabouri Japan. A semi-official note today said the reply will be handed to Foreign Minister Brucknow-Rantzau either Sunday evening or Monday night with an eight day limit for the Germans to sign.

REMARKABLE DEMONSTRATION PRECEDES HANGING

TORONTO, Canada, June 13—Following a demonstration such as had never been seen in this city before, Frank McCullough, aged 24, of Youngstown, Ohio, was today hanged for the murder of Acting Detective Williams on November 19, last. McCullough went to the scaffold with a smile on his face and died with "Good bye God bless you" on his lips.

Five thousand people crowded around the jail last night cheering for the condemned man who had a great deal of sympathy. Time and time again he appeared at the cell window saluting the crowd.

GOVERNOR PROCLAIMS
SATURDAY FLAG DAY

HARRISBURG, June 12—Governor William C. Sproul today issued this statement on Flag Day:

The observance of Flag Day this year promises to be more widespread than ever before, and I urge upon every patriot to display the Stars and Stripes next Saturday, both in honor of the flag that we revere and out of respect to the 80,000 loyal Americans who laid down their lives on the battlefields of France in its defense.

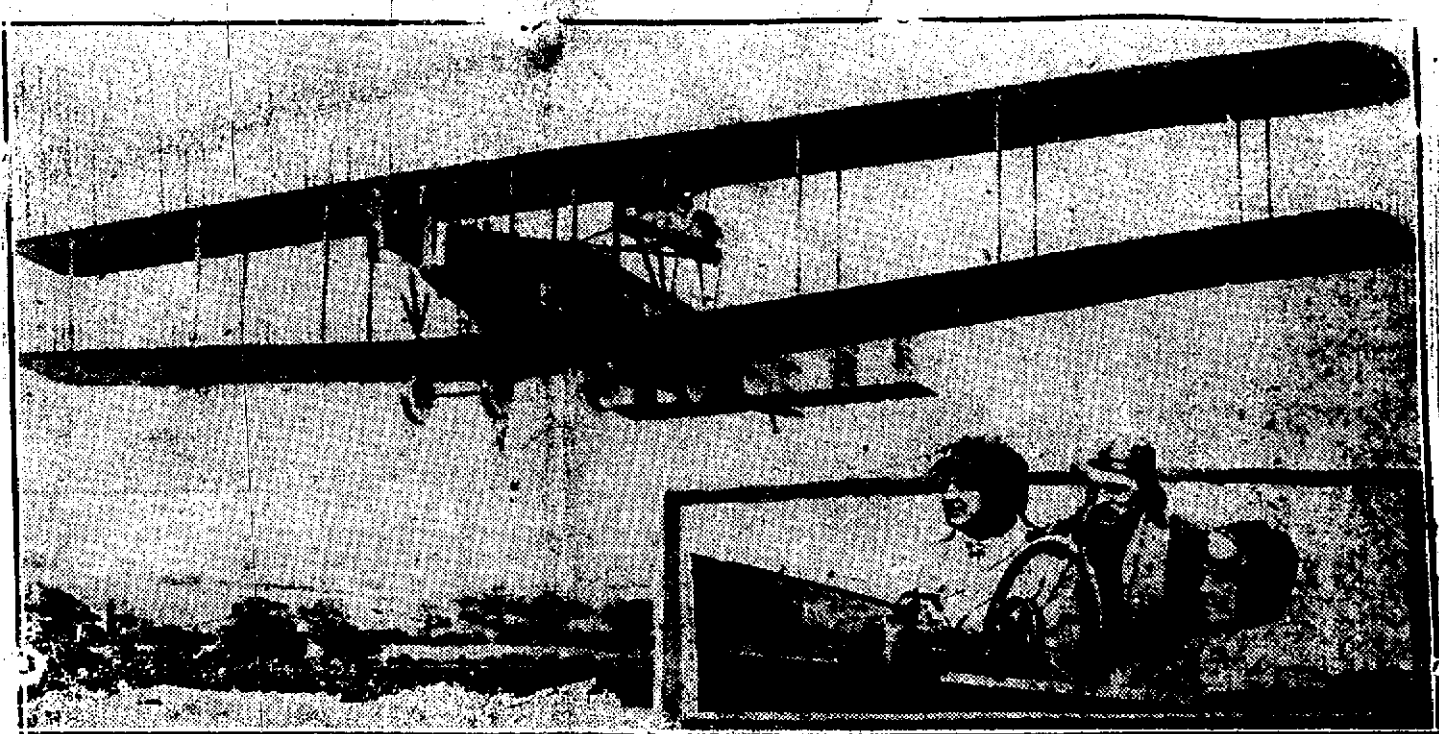

The stars are brighter than ever and Americans never had more occasion to be proud of their national colors.

BOMBS FOUND IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, June 13.—Police today are investigating the finding of nine hand made bombs under a thin layer of coal shipped from Coxon, Pa. Detectives believe the bombs were shipped in preparation for a demonstration by radicals.

HANDLEY PAGE BOMBER AND BRITISH OFFICERS WHO WILL TRY TRANSATLANTIC FLIGHT 800 N.—Giant English twin-motored machine with 127 foot wing spread which may try flight from Newfoundland to Ireland sometime today. ANARCHY AND ANARCHISTS NOT PURE
AMERICAN PRODUCT: OVERSEAS IMPORT

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—The recent bomb outrages occurring simultaneously in half a dozen cities, following on the heels of the earlier attempt on the lives of public officials and others by the sending of infernal machines through the mails, is regarded as evidence of the existence of an anarchistic organization in America of wider scope than any known to exist heretofore.

Surprising as it may seem to the uninformed public, there has never been known to exist in this country any general organization of anarchists. True, whenever out of the country's masses of ignorant aliens some leopards or fanatic has hurled a bomb or otherwise attempted to slay some leader of the people, there has gone forth a hue and cry that organized anarchy was afoot.

But invariably the investigation has disclosed the fact that the outrage was the act of an individual, or at most, of a small group. Such groups have been known to exist for years past in numerous cities, including Paterson, N. J., Baltimore, Philadelphia, Harre, Vt., and the Massachusetts cities of Lynn, Lawrence and Fitchburg. New York and Chicago have always had their Anarchists, but in these two largest cities so numerous they have been either so numerous or so active as in some of the smaller cities.

Among the groups of Anarchists in the different cities there has never been known to exist any real connection or co-ordination of activities. Each group has worked separately. Many cases have contributed to this result, but probably the chief one is the racial differences. In New York the Anarchists are largely Russian Jews, with a sprinkling of Letts, Spaniards, Italians and other nationalities. In Baltimore, Philadelphia, Harre and other cities they have been mostly Italians. In Paterson the anarchistic group is made up chiefly of Letts. In various cities of Massachusetts and in the copper region of upper Michigan they are Finns.

The Anarchist has no vernacular, no means of intercommunication. A convention of all the Anarchists in the United States—and there are many thousands of them—would be a veritable Babel, a confusion of tongues unsurpassed. Furthermore, these people coming from all parts of Europe, have been imbued with differing ideals. There are as many kinds of anarchism as there are of socialism. Any unanimity among these men and women, which would be a necessary element in forming a general organization, would be impossible.

Among those best acquainted with Anarchists and their ways the opinion prevails that the recent outrages were not the work of branches of the same organization existing in the different cities, but in all probability were accomplished by members of on group existing in Philadelphia or some other eastern city, and who were sent on their last missions to Washington, New York, Boston and other cities where the outrages occurred.

Existing laws are considered fully adequate for the suppression of anarchy. In 1907 the Postoffice Department was given authority to stop the publication and circulation of the extreme socialist publications which were the chief means for spreading the anarchistic doctrine. In the same

FOR STATE JUDGES

HARRISBURG, June 12.—House bills reported from the senate appropriations committee increase salaries of all judges in Pennsylvania.

All judges, county, superior and supreme, receiving $10,000 or more a year will be given an increase of $1,000 a year except the chief justice of the supreme court, whose salary is raised $1,500 making it $15,000. The increase will make the salary of the other members of the supreme court $14,000.

Under the increase the president judge of the superior court will receive $13,500 and the other members of the court $13,000.

Judges receiving less than $10,000 will receive an increase of $1,000. The salary of the president judges of the county court of Allegheny and the president judge of the Philadelphia municipal court are raised from $8,500 to $9,500, and the salaries of the other judges in these two courts are increased from $6,000 to $8,000.

CUBS AND WHITE SOX

By L. R. BLANCHARD

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

CHICAGO, June 13. (United Press)—If F. P. Mitchell were an M. D. this sometimes human race would soon become a queer looking thing. For Fred F., bosso supreme of the Chicago Cubs, believes in revolution rather than evolution for getting results. If what he does to the Cubs is a criterion he would, as a surgeon, shift for feet, hands for hair and give the ears an occasional tryout as legs. That's his style.

The Cubs were touted as natural born, hereditary leaders of the national league this season. The touting didn't take for more than a week. There was some ill luck and a little—a very little—bum playing by the Cubs. Then the team began to lose standing, at home, abroad and especially in the percentage tables. An eastern trip resulted in a string of losses so that the Cubs quickly descended into the second division and old neighbors began to gossip about the family.

Thus far this year Sgt. Bill Killefer looks like about 95 per cent. of the $100 the stockholders have expended for players in late years. Sgt. Alexander has been tuff-lucked outright; Turner Barber, former Baltimore outfielder, began to forget how to hit when the pitchers began to remember how to throw, and Chuck Workman, priceless shortstop, went back to the minors for a price.

Commander Mitchell has gone thru his lineup a dozen times since the season opened, put in new gears and then the old ones again. Still the engine sounds rather sour. But Mitchell hasn't quit hoping and believing. He has the pitchers—when they finally get to pitching consistently—and he has a starstop and an ordinarily good, non-startout fielder. There is a belief the Cubs will rise again.

Well, anyway, Chicago has a league leader in the White Sox, doomed by the winter leaguers to the second division just as conclusively as the Cubs were awarded first place in the other league.

William "Kid" Gleason is given most of the credit for the showing. It is the "Kid's" way to fight for every ball game and he has put some of his spirit into his men.

At the same time the Sox were more fortunate with their pitchers than they had hoped. Eddie Cicotte is going in 1917 style. "Red" Faber is coming back. "Lefty" Williams has discovered new strength to take him all the way through a ball game and there are the youngsters Shellenback and Kerr, the latter left handed. Gleason also is confident of making a genuine major leaguer of Grover Lowdermilk, one of the in-and-outers of the majors.

Back of these hurlers Gleason has a dependably fielding set of infielders and gardeners. Added to that some of those fellows certainly can "bust" that ball. The whole gang is captained by Eddie Collins, well known member of the marine corps. The Sox so far have been a lot more dangerous than a glow worm in a power factory.

With the Cubs expected to come right back and with the White Sox out in front Chicago is a baseball city again. The fans haven't had much chance. The weather has been somewhat obstinate and those who panned their bennies on March 21 could hardly sit out in the open for a two hour game. But the first two warm Sundays of the year saw 44,000 persons sitting in Mr. Comiskey's coral

WETS HAVE ABOUT
GIVEN UP THE SHIP

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Several hundred labor union representatives arrived here today from Atlantic City to join in the protest against the enforcement of the Wartime Prohibition Act. A trainload of their friends and associates will arrive here Saturday morning to take part in the demonstration in front of the Capitol.

A delegation from Kentucky, headed by Earl Gwin, a prominent brewer of Louisville, held a conference with the Kentucky Congressmen in the office of Senator Beckham this afternoon. Mr. Gwin, speaking for the banking interests of his state and the distillers, declared that if six months were not given to liquor interests to dispose of their stocks the Government would lose more than $500,000,000 in taxes, and it would be impossible to enforce prohibition of any kind with 70,000,000 gallons of whiskey in warehouses.

He said that Kentucky would have, July 1, more than 30,000,000 gallons, and that numbers of cities in other States would have smaller quantities which they could not dispose of.

A canvass of the situation here today shows that Congressmen opposed to the Wartime Prohibition Act are discouraged. Senator Phelan of California, leading the fight in the Senate for the repeal of the law, said that all he could promise is a hearing for protestants. He declared that here and there in the Senate was a Senator who would vote for his repeal bill, but the total number is so small that it would not count against an overwhelming majority in favor of retaining the law.

Senator Curtis, Republican leader of the prohibition forces in the Senate, was emphatic in his prediction that the repeal bill would die without serious consideration.

LOCAL CHURCHMAN
ELECTED MODERATOR

The local delegates to the annual convention of the Clearfield Baptist Association meeting, which was held at Sykesville, Pa., returned home yesterday.

The Clearfield Baptist Association is composed of all the Baptist congregations of Clearfield, Jefferson and several adjoining counties. This meeting was largely attended and much business of interest to Baptists generally was transacted.

The reports from the different churches showed a very healthy growth spiritually while encouraging progress was made financially and materially despite war conditions the past year.

Clearfield and the local Baptist congregation was signally honored in the unanimous selection of our townsman William P. Sheeder as Moderator. Mr. Sheeder is the first lay Moderator to be chosen in the history of the association.

Mr. Sheeder has been active in Baptist work in this district for the past twenty years and this recognition of his efficient service in the cause of Christianity is gratifying to his hosts of Clearfield friends both in and outside of his church.

Rev. George E. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist church of Clearfield was elected the delegate to represent the Association at the State Convention to be held at Scranton in September.

GET UP EARLY TO SEE THAT AIRPLANE

That U. S. Martin bombing plane, on its one-stop flight from the Atlantic to the Pacific, should pass over Clearfield about 6:36 tomorrow morning, if the schedule published in The Progress a week or more ago is followed and no accidents occur.

The army, thrilled by the successful flight of the naval NC-4 across the ocean will attempt in this proposed test to make a world's record for sustained distance flight overland, and if nothing intervenes the big Martin bomber will leave the aviation field at Mineola, Long Island at 3:30 Saturday morning and is expected to make the following schedule over this section of Pennsylvania: Millmont, 5:41; Coburn, 5:55; Bellefonte, 6:05; Philipsburg, 6:10; Mitchell, 6:29; Clearfield, 6:36; Grampian, 6:45; Redbank, 7:14; East Brady, 7:17; Euclid, 7:30; New Castle, 7:47.

The one stop to be made is at North Platte, Nebraska.

Get up early tomorrow morning and look for the history maker.

VICTORY GARDENERS

Every boy and girl interested in Victory Gardens should read the following.

MESSAGE

Boys and Girls of the UNITED STATES SCHOOL GARDEN ARMY from:

Dr. J. H. Francis,
Director, U. S. S. G. A.
This old world is tired and sick and hungry. The war has left a frightful wound on the face of civilization that will take time and work and care to heal without leaving an ugly scar. You helped to win the war, and now you will help to heal the wounds it made. Millions of boys and girls in Europe are sick and dying because they do not have enough to eat. Hundreds of thousands are actually starving. Until they are well fed our work as a garden army is not finished. It will take years before this can be done. By growing gardens in times of peace you are still helping to fight the great battles of democracy for democracy is not safe while people are hungry. You are not only helping others but you are learning some of the most valuable lessons that can be learned. While doing your part to help the world you are gaining knowledge and power that will make you a bigger, better, stronger man or woman.

Let us put our garden flag in the home of every American boy and girl and show our country that we wish to pull our share of the load.

PENNSYLVANIA SHOULD AT LEAST BE FOURTH

Hon. Joseph E. Phillips is to be commended for his determined effort to have the House at Harrisburg ratify the Woman's Suffrage amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Representative Phillips made two attempts to get a ratifying resolution before the House, but as unanimous consent was necessary before it could be introduced his efforts met with failure when several members objected.

A rather has been introduced in the Senate and Pennsylvania now has a chance to be the fourth state in line for votes for women as three different Commonwealths have already ratified.

THE FISHERMEN'S LICENSE LAW

The bill providing for a fishermen's license in Pennsylvania passed the House at Harrisburg this week and is now in the Senate for final action there. This bill provides a license fee of $1.00 for all fishermen over 16 years of age. Farmers and their families are exempted of tax for fishing in waters upon which their farm lands abut.

This law is being advocated by the State Fisheries department and fishermen generally throughout the state who see in this plan the only way to properly stock and propagate game and food fishes in the waters of the state. Under present conditions the appropriation made by the state to the Fisheries department is entirely too small to be effective and our streams are rapidly being depopulated.

It is estimated that this fish license law will raise annually between $300,000 and $400,000 and with this sum available each year Commissioner Buller will soon be able to make Pennsylvania's streams what the disciples of old Izaak Walton would like to see them.

STARKING OF THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

Kansas has started harvesting its wheat, which promises to be nearly one fourth of the total winter-wheat crop of the United States. Never in the history of the State has it looked for such rich returns from the millions of acres that have been planted. Half the population of the United States could be fed for a year on the flour made from wheat grown on the farms of one Western State.

It is reasonable to hope that the retail price of flour will soon take a drop in view of this immense wheat yield?

We were promised a drop in the retail price of beef some time ago, but it has failed to arrive as yet. Possibly the following will give the reason:

While prices are being maintained at higher levels than ever before, the packing interests of the country are holding in cold storage 1,399,000 pounds of meat and meat products and 46,000,000 pounds of chicken.

This charge was made on the floor of the House by Representative Fess, of Ohio, yesterday. He said the figures were furnished him by the bureau of markets of the department of Agriculture.

Mr. Fess declared these figures revealed a startling condition, adding: My observation is that meats are higher than ever before. There ought to be some way to get at this situation. If the department of the government will not take action this Congress ought to enact persuasive legislation."

THE FARMER'S BOY

Mr. Farmer does your boy like the farm?
He does if given a square deal.

Don't wait till you die, don't wait till your boy is twenty-one before giving him a start.

The secret of making your boy happy on the farm is in getting him interested young.

If you have a boy ten years old, give him a cow, at twelve give him a cow, at sixteen a mare. Let him have all the increase to sell or breed and let him have his own bank account. Try it.

DUTCH COLONIAL HOUSE POPULAR

Fine Type of Home for City or Farm.

OWNER HAS MOST FOR MONEY

Design is Suited to Needs of Family of Average Size—Roominess of Interior a Prominent Feature.

Mr. William A. Radford will answer questions and give advice FREE OF COST on all subjects pertaining to the subject of building, for the readers of this paper. On account of his wide experience as Editor, Author and Manufacturer, he is, without doubt, the highest authority on all these subjects. Address all inquiries to William A. Radford, No. 1821 Prairie Avenue, Chicago, Ill., and only enclose three-cent stamp for reply.

There are many reasons why the prospective home builder should at once select the plan of the house he wants and start construction now. Building materials are higher in price than they were two years ago, but not as high as they were last fall. Labor costs a little less than it did in October, 1918. And coupled with these reasons is the fact that there will be no change during the present year in the price of materials, with a strong probability that they will go higher next year. This last statement is based on the fact that the costs of a majority of necessities have risen during the first four months of the year. Building material prices, however, have been stabilized, that is, they will go neither higher nor lower.

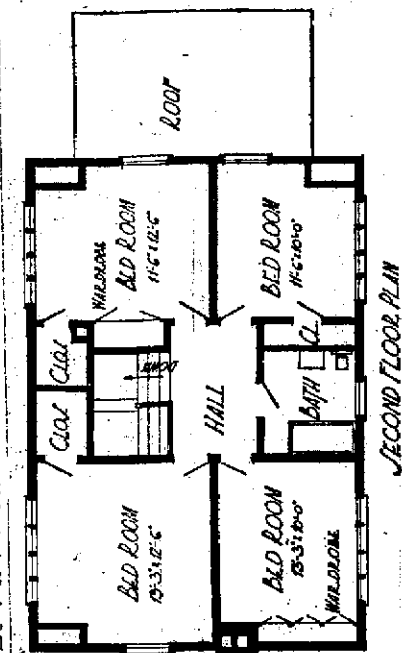

Many persons who want to build a home, and have determined on building, now that the restrictions have been removed by the government, have been doubtful about the advisability of building now. Those doubts are dispelled by the stabilizing of prices and the fact that labor is plentiful, if not cheap.

In selecting the type of home to build, every owner should take into consideration the size of house he needs, the size of lot he has upon leading to the second floor. To the left is the living room, with a den off it, and at the right is the dining room and sun parlor, the kitchen adjoining.

The living room is of good size, being 13 feet 3 inches, by 16 feet. The fireplace is in the outside wall and has two windows on either side, which, coupled with the three that can be seen in the perspective make it a light and cheerful room. The den adjoining is 12 feet 6 inches, by 8 feet 6 inches.

The dining room is 13 feet 3 inches, by 14 feet 6 inches. Double doors open into the living porch, which is 15 feet by 8 feet 6 inches. This porch is equipped with glazed windows for winter use and is screened in the summer. It can be used either as a living porch or as a dining porch.

The kitchen is 11 feet 6 inches, by 8 feet and has a good-sized pantry adjoining.

On the second floor are four good-sized bedrooms opening off a center hall, and the bathroom.

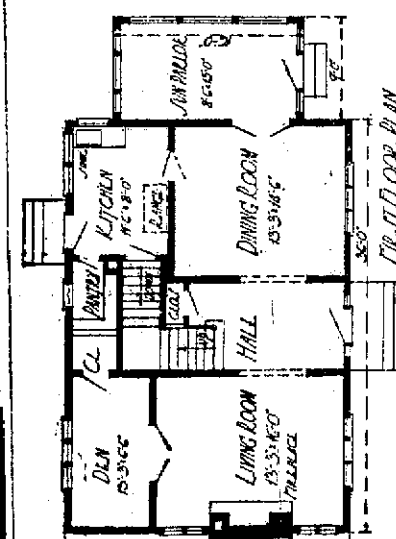

The basement extends under the whole house, with the exception of the living porch.

This house will suit the needs of the moderately large family and is equally suitable for the city, small town or the farm. Its cost is moderate which to put it, and the style of architecture best suited to that lot. These considerations, however, carry little weight in the country where space is not so costly as in the city.

Illustrated herewith is the type of home that is in great demand in both the city and country. The Dutch colonial house is popular because of its balanced elegance and the fact that the owner gets the utmost for his money in room and convenience. Just what an attractive exterior appears once this type of house has been shown by the illustration, while the roominess of the interior is disclosed by the floor plan.

This house is of wood frame covered with shingles to the foundation sill. It will be noted that the house is perfectly balanced. The entrance door is in the center of the building, while on either side are the same number of windows. The sloping Dutch roof, that has a graceful sweep from ridge to second floor sill, and the jutting windows take away the plain appearance without adding the extra cost that is incurred to accomplish the same result with an old-fashioned building. The addition of the dining room is a feature of this design that has an exceptional appeal.

The dimensions of this house are only 36 by 24 feet, but it contains eight rooms and bath beside the large sun parlor. The entrance leads to a center hall, in which are the stairs compared with many other houses that will accommodate the same number of people and it is an exceptionally attractive home from an exterior point of view. Every modern convenience also is provided.

This design is susceptible to several changes that might suit the builder. The den can be eliminated and the living room extended across the whole end of the house. The same may be done with the bedrooms, making all large and more airy. By consulting the local architect, or the contractor who is a practical architect these changes can easily be made. Engaging an architect is always good business for the home builder. These experts in building give the prospective builder many valuable hints that will save money and prevent disappointment.

The cost of this house can quickly be found by consulting the local material dealer. Prices of all materials and of labor differ in different localities, so an estimate that would be correct in one place would not be in another. The difference is brought about by the difference in freight rates from the source of supply.

There are many arguments in favor of every family owning and living in their own home. Rents are based on the amount of money invested in the building, the cost of upkeep, plus a profit for the owner. Home building associations and real estate dealers and bankers always are ready to help the man of family with a little capital to build his home. The cost is paid the same as rent.

The satisfaction and comfort that come to the home owner are well worth the small sacrifices required to secure a home. And when that home is paid for the owner has an asset that cannot be measured in dollars. He is one of the good substantial members of his community—one of the men who has the interest of his home town at heart. It certainly pays to own a home.

Strict Obedience.

A sergeant going on his rounds one morning was surprised to see one of his men in a bath with a bottle in his hand. On being asked what he was doing, the man replied that he had reported sick the previous morning, and the doctor had ordered him to take his medicine twice a day in water, and he was simply carrying out the doctor's orders.

SOME CHURCHES WILL SEND THEIR PASTORS

BALTIMORE, MD., June 13.—Practically every church in this Methodist Episcopal area will be represented by their pastors and groups of members at the great Methodist Centenary celebration at Columbus, Ohio, June 20 to July 13.

District superintendents have reported to Centenary headquarters here that the Washington Area, made up of Central Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia and West Virginia, will be largely represented.

Hundreds of churches have arranged to finance the trips of their pastors to Columbus. This is particularly true of the smaller parishes having budgets much lower than in the large city church districts. The Centenary campaign which will be brought to a climax by the jubilee festivities at Columbus, has had the effect of recruiting thousands of Methodist constituents into the ranks of active stewardship.

Methodism in every community in America is to be represented at the gigantic exposition. The celebration which extends over a period of twenty-four days will attract not less than 150,000 people. Plans have been completed to accommodate that number. The rush of applicants for reservations both in the hotels and private homes, and the great "tent city" erected by the Centenary committee, strongly indicate that fully 200,000 may attend the celebration before its close.

The railroad administration has just announced a special rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip to Columbus from all parts of the United States while the celebration is in progress. While thousands will avail themselves of this attractive rate to take in the "Methodist World's Fair," other thousands will proceed to the exposition in automobile caravans.

PROHIBITION RESTS ON A SOLID BASIS

Prohibition rests on a solid basis. It is not a mushroom growth due to the war, and most of the successes of Prohibition were achieved before the war. Nor is the movement for Prohibition today primarily an emotional movement. It rests rather on the solid-bolstered calculations of the scientist, the statistician, the economist, the public health officer, the industrial manager and the military expert. Liquor is as doomed, and doomed for good, as slavery. Conservatives will understand it all after it all has happened. Now, it seems to them impracticable, just as, a generation ago, the destruction of the Chinese opium traffic seemed impracticable.

TO SHIP 375,000 BACK IN MONTH OF JUNE

PARIS, June 11.—General Pershing has advised that he proposes to transport 375,000 men homeward during June. This will surpass all previous records for moving troops overseas and exceeds the number Great Britain sent across the Channel in any month.

The total number of people that the world can maintain is estimated at six billions, or about four times the present population. At the present rate of increase, this figure will be reached in some two hundred years.

So prolific is the common or domestic fly that in a single season one industrious female could count her progeny to twenty millions if all survived and followed her example of maternity.

ONE little fairie and an imp or two make mothers sigh for old barefoot days and daddy frown when he gets bills.

ALL CHILD WEAR COSTLY

BY MARGARET RHODE
(Written for The United Press)

Junior needs a pair of oxfords, Bud must be resoled, Buckskin pumps needs Dorothea, Little "gift of God," Tottie must have bigger sandals, Jim and Jerry too; Even so the little Fordlet Wants a new rear shoe. Really is it any wonder Daddy gets the blues And also hocks the family jewels When the kids need shoes

NEW YORK, June 6.—If you have a little fairy in your home with perhaps an imp or two to boot you are no doubt seriously contemplating availing the Kneipe cure or sending them out to Tennessee to have 'em turned into barefoot dancers.

But after all, why kick on the boots alone, since all the garments appertaining to a child's wardrobe are twice as expensive proportionately as grownups? Though they are dear monetarily they are also so dear affectionately that you just can't resist 'em.

Time was when a sheer white hand-made slip with a touch of real lace insertion and edging was the acme of elegance for any and all children irrespective of type. Nowadays designers for small folks are just as important as designers for big folks and it is just as essential that the type of frock should fit the wee wearers personality.

We have departed far from the English costume of dressing our offspring in chaste white, and, following the French fashion, we now deck them out in all colors of the rainbow, from orange and cerise down to black and lavender. Black taffeta frocks are indeed very chic enlivened with gay yarn embroidery and an organdie dress of orchid or mauve, fluffily ruffled and sashed and scrippled, is perfect for an heiress from three to eight.

The French models are mostly straight lined little affairs, very brief as to skirt and very scant as to fullness. They all show some striking embroidery of brilliant hued yarn or silk or else some unique color combinations of materials.

A quaint little dress of pale blue Japanese cotton crepe has a short waist and low round neck and armholes outlined with scallops or pink yard crochet and is worn over a little white organdie guimpe, edged with tatting. The same model comes in a rose crepe with Chinese blue yarn scallops or an orange with scallops of lavender.

A dashing little Nile green linen with collar, cuffs, pockets and yoke splashed with the green and cerise or embroidered cherries and topped off with a poke of green raffia bobbing with the same delectable fruit cause; various shades of green envy to sport in other breasts as its fair own or haunted its cherry charms in the Park the other day.

The cunning fluffly ruffle frocks of sprigged daisy, pink rosebudded voile and cross barred organdie, in all heavenly shades, turn their fortunate little possessors into animated flower bells or butterflies. Quaint effects of grandmotherly chints and English print in gay colors are chic and bizarre and perfect apparel indeed for the black-haired, gypsylike little maid, as the fluffly frocks adorn more fittingly the pink and white perfection of Miss Goldenlocks.

As for the little Beau Drummels, they still strut in khaki attire or swagger in the starched white or navy blue of the Jack tar. They are great sticklers for the proper insignia, however, and woe be it to the short sighted mother who has purchased an English sailor suit for her young hopeful. Her life is made a hideous burden until the royal insignia is ripped from the sleeve and replaced with the screaming eagle and white stars must shine from each corner of the collar or all will not be well with the world.

Comb Sage Tea Into Gray Hair

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre at Once

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

EDUCATIONAL FILM VERY INSTRUCTIVE

Build Motor Cars and Liberty Motors Before Your Eyes

Everybody today either owns a motor car or expects to own one some day. Almost everybody can "speak the language." But the knowledge of the general public with reference to motor cars is largely confined to what the motor car will do in business or family service.

There is another side to the motor car that is just as wonderful—indeed even more wonderful to many people—and that is the manner in which it is built up from ores and alloys, cloth and rubber, wood and leather, into an energetic, untiring, faithful servant with more than human endurance, and almost living in its response to the wishes of its driver.

A series of five educational features, recently adopted by the United States government in its educational work, starts this week at the Driggs Theatre tomorrow, showing how motor cars are built by one of the largest builders of motor cars. Beginning with the raw materials, the progress of the different parts is shown through the foundry, the drop force hammer, to various heat-treating, machine and grinding departments, until finally the machine runs off under its own power, complete to the last detail.

Nothing is slighted to make this series complete, even to laying bare the mystic operations of the analytical chemists, the metallurgists, and the intricate testing apparatus in the physical and electrical laboratories.

One of the later features will show how Liberty motor cars were built for Uncle Sam's airplanes during the recent war.

CHALLENGES CIVIL WAR VETERANS

Since W. Lacey, Civil war veteran at Franklin, Pa., told a Democrat reporter Saturday that he had a record which he challenges any old soldier in the state of Pennsylvania to beat. Mr. Lacey lived in Lanesboro, N. H., where he was in the 89th New York Infantry, served during the whole four years of the war receiving his discharge in 1835; was wounded twice, taken prisoner at Fair Oak and participated in 31 battles.

ONE little fairie and an imp or two make mothers sigh for old barefoot days and daddy frown when he gets bills.

ALL CHILD WEAR COSTLY

BY MARGARET RHOE
(Written for The United Press)

Junior needs a pair of oxfords. Bud must be resoled. Buckskin pumps needs Dorothea. Little "gift of God." Tottie must have bigger sandals. Jim and Jerry too. Even so the little Fordlet Wants a new rear shoe. Really is it any wonder. Daddy gets the blues And also hocks the family jewels When the kids need shoes

NEW YORK, June 6.—If you have a little fairy in your home with perhaps an imp or two to boot you are no doubt seriously contemplating advocating the Kneipe cure or sending them out to Tennishawn to have "em turned into barefoot dancers."

But after all, why kick on the boots alone, since all the garments appertaining to a child's wardrobe are twice as expensive proportionately as grownups? Though they are dear monetarily they are also so dear affectionately that you just can't resist 'em.

Time was when a sheer white hand-made slip with a touch of real lace insertion and edging was the acme of elegance for any and all children irrespective of type. Nowadays designers for small folks are just as important as designers for big folks and it is just as essential that the type of frock should fit the wee wearers' personality.

We have departed far from the English costume of dressing our offspring in chaste white, and, following the French fashion, we now deck them out in all colors of the rainbow, from orange and cerise down to black and lavender. Black taffeta frocks are indeed very chic combined with gay yarn embroidery and an organdie dress of orchid or mauve, fluffily ruffled and sashed and supplied, is perfect for an heiress from three to eight.

The French models are mostly straight lined little affairs, very brief as to skirt and very scant as to fullness. They all show some striking embroidery of brilliant hued yarn or silk or else some unique color combinations of materials.

A quaint little dress of pale blue Japanese cotton crepe has a short waist and low round neck and arm holes outlined with scallops of pink yard crochet and is worn over a little white organdie guimpe, edged with tating. The same model comes in a rose crepe with Chinese blue yarn scallops or an orange with scallops of lavender.

A dashing little Nile green linen with collar, cuffs, pockets and yoke splashed with the green and cerise or embroidered cherries and topped off with a pike of green raffia bobbing with the same delectable fruit caused various shades of green envy to sprout in other breasts as its fair owner flaunted its cherry charms in the Park the other day.

The cunning fluffly ruffle frocks or sprigged dimity, pink rosebudded voile and cross barred organdie, in all heavenly shades, turn their fortunate little possessors into animated flower bells or butterflies. Quaint effects of grandmother chintz and English print in gay colors are chic and bizarre and perfect apparel indeed for the black-haired, gypsyesque little maid, as the fluffly frocks adorn more fittingly the pink and white perfection of Miss Goldenlocks.

As for the little Beau Brummels, they still strut in khaki attire or swaggy in the starched white or navy blue of the Jack tar. They are great sticklers for the proper insignia, however, and wear be it to the short sighted mother who has purchased an English sailor suit for her young hopeful. Her life is made a hideous burden until the royal insignia is ripped from the sleeve and replaced with the screaming carac and white stars must shine from each corner of the collar or all will not be well with the world.

Comb Sage Tea Into Gray Hair

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Natural Color and Lustre at Once

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinister, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By years is vigorous, retains a good darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one being employed at a saw mill at can tell, because it does it so natural. Franklin Perks, daily handling 6,000 ly, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

EDUCATIONAL FILM VERY INSTRUCTIVE

Buick Motor Cars and Liberty Motors Before Your Eyes

Everybody today either owns a motor car or expects to own one some day. Almost everybody can "speak the language." But the knowledge of the general public with reference to motor cars is largely confined to what the motor car will do in business or family service.

There is another side to the motor car that is just as wonderful—indeed even more wonderful to many people—and that is the manner in which it is built up from ores and alloys, cloth and rubber, wood and leather, into an energetic, unflinching, faithful servant with more than human endurance, and almost living in its response to the wishes of its driver.

A series of five educational features, recently adopted by the United States government in its educational work, starts this week at the Driggs Theatre tomorrow, showing how motor cars are built by one of the largest builders of motor cars. Beginning with the raw materials, the progress of the different parts is shown through the foundry, the drop forge hammer, to various heat-treating, machining and grinding departments, until finally the machine runs off under its own power, complete to the last detail.

Nothing is slighted to make this series complete, even to laying bare the mystic operations of the analytical chemists, the metallurgists, and the intricate testing apparatus in the physical and electrical laboratories.

One of the later features will show how Liberty motors were built for Uncle Sam's airplanes during the great war.

CHALLENGES CIVIL WAR VETERANS

Shas W. Lacey, Civil war veteran at Franklin Perks, Pa. told a Democrat reporter Saturday that he had a record which he challenges any old soldier in the state of Pennsylvania to beat. Mr. Lacey at the age of 75 is vigorous, retains a good health, juvenile ambition and spirit. He was employed at a saw mill at Franklin Perks, daily handling 6,000 feet of lumber.

Mr. Lacey lived in Lanesboro previous to enlistment in the 89th New York Infantry, served during the war receiving four years of the war receiving his discharge in 1865; was wounded twice, taken prisoner at Fair Oak and participated in 21 battles.

Recipe To Clear A Pimply Skin

Pimples Are Impurities Seeking An
Outlet Through Skin Pores

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples. The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

C. A. Rorbaugh is having his residence property re-painted and touched up inside. Jack Frost is also repainting his dwelling.

Clarence Ammerman arrived home yesterday after an almost two years service in the army. Part of his term of service was spent overseas.

Business conditions in Curwensville are not on the decrease by any means, according to reports received from merchants who claim that this month is bringing them an increase of trade and that sales are much larger now than this time last year.

Miss Ruth LaPorte entertained a number of her lady friends at her home last evening.

Miss Ida Swartz, a professional nurse who has been connected with the hospital service over seas and on the firing line for the past two years, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Dale on River street. Miss Swartz, during her army experience, passed through the danger zone on the firing line and in field hospitals scenes that seldom fall to the lot of young lady nurses, and could her work and what she passed through during her two years service be written and put in book form would make an interesting volume, historically.

Clyde Thompson, who sells shoes, etc., for a large wholesale house west of the Mississippi river, is here on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Harry Brown, of Scofield street. His headquarters are in the city of Omaha, Neb., and the territory over which he travels takes him through many states west of the mighty river and south almost to New Orleans.

The Crescent band gave an outdoor concert last evening on the lawn east of the Park hotel. Their music was appreciated by the large number of people who stood on the street for more than an hour listening to them.

The condition of Nolan Bloom, who has been so ill for the past nine weeks with typhoid fever, and whose death was looked for most any day for the past three weeks, is reported much better this morning and now hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Reports from the Ashley Bloom home at Lumber City last evening was to the effect that Mrs. Bloom was now past the danger line and would be well in a week or so.

Our thanks, as well as those of John Pifer and Editor Bixler, are due to Merritt Caldwell for a delightful auto ride yesterday evening, the route being up the new road to Bloomington and a mile or so beyond the Clearfield road and return by the old original road, striking town via Eastgate. The farm products all along the route showed up finely and from present indications promises to reward the farmer bountifully for his labor. The fruit crop is almost a total failure, the heavy frosts about the time the trees were in blossom freezing the buds.

PROGRESSIVES IN SENATE PICK JOHNSON FOR NOMINATION IN 1920 ELECTIONS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Senator Hiram Johnson, California, is the candidate of senate progressive leaders for the Republican nomination for President in 1920. Senators Borah and Kenyon joined today in this announcement, declaring they spoke for all the senate progressives and for a group of liberals scattered through a number of states.

These men have already begun active campaigns to line up the liberal support of the country behind Johnson it was stated. The call recently issued by California friends of Johnson for a meeting to launch his candidacy, is part of the general campaign, progressive senators stated.

Johnson's supporters plan, Borah said, to go immediately into all states where the primary for election of delegates to the national convention prevails in hope of getting an early test of Johnson sentiment.

"Progressives have been uniting on Johnson for the past two or three months," said Borah today. "His speech on the league of nations brought the matter to a climax. From all over the country men of liberal beliefs have been writing in and some of them have come here for conferences."

"The result is that Senator Johnson is our candidate. He has the absolutely undivided support of senate progressives."

Borah made it plain that he has never been a candidate for the nomination, though his name has been mentioned in practically every discussion of prospective Republican aspirants.

The platform upon which progressives will put Johnson forward at the Republican convention is to contain among others the following planks, Progressives stated:

1. No permanent entangling alliances with Europe and no meddling by Europe in American affairs.

2. Immediate return of all American troops from abroad, particularly from Russia.

3. Complete restoration of free speech, a free press and the right of peaceable assemblage.

4. A labor program based on co-operation and a greater interest of the workers in the industries which their toil creates.

Johnson today declined to comment on the announcement of his friends.

Praying by electricity is now practiced by the Buddhists in India. The prayers, written on long bands of paper, are wrapped round a wheel and each turn of the wheel is equivalent to one repetition of the prayer. The pious native believes that the greater number of revolutions of his prayer-wheel the better his prayers will be answered, and he either turns it by hand or lets the wind or water turn it. To overcome the difficulty when the water-courses run dry and to safeguard the religious customs and traditions of the natives, the government now compels the electric companies to equip the prayer-wheels with motors, and supply the necessary current to turn them during the dry season free of all charge to the natives.

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up with out a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.

H. W. R. CO. DOWNS THIRD WARD TEAM

The H. W. R. Co. team shut the crack Third Ward team out without a run in last night's Twilight League game, the final count being 2 to 0. It was one of the best and snappiest games of the season.

1st Inning

Braham made a safe hit down along the 1st base line. He stole second. Mr. Goey out on a fly. Roseberry singled to right center and Braham was out at the plate. Bender out at first.

Poole, first man up for Third Ward, doubled to left center. Conklin out at first. Poole taking 2nd. W. Fauver hit to the pitcher who threw to first and the 1st baseman threw to the catcher, doubling Poole at home.

Second Inning

Kirk up, singled to center and stole second and third as Poorman and Counsel were striking out and scored on Shaw's hit to center. Moore out at first.

Long struck out. Ogden walked. Carter and Krebs struck out.

Third Inning

Braham out on a caught fly. McGee singled to left and stole second. Roseberry struck out. Bender hit a mean bouncer past Long for a hit, scoring McGee. Poole made a dandy running catch of Kirk's Texas leaguer.

Woodie out at 1st. Poole out on fly ball. Conklin singled to left. On W. Fauver's 2-base hit to left, Conklin tried to score and was out on a perfect tag to the plate by Roseberry.

Fourth Inning

Poorman struck out. Counsel got a hit and then got out on a double play. Long to Conklin.

Long and R. Fauver were both out at 1st. Ogden walked and died stealing.

Fifth Inning

Moore safe at 1st on an error. Braham struck out. McGee out at 1st. Roseberry out on caught fly. Carter out on caught fly. Krebs out at 1st and Woodie struck out.

Sixth Inning

Bender struck out. Kirk out at 1st. Poorman got a walk and died stealing. Poole got a walk and died stealing. Conklin safe on an error and out at second trying to steal. Likewise for W. Fauver. Some pegging Eddie.

Seventh Inning

Counsel struck out. Shaw out at 1st. Moore safe on error. Braham singled to center. Moore taking second. Moore out at 2nd stealing.

Sport Hats and Others

Because the late summer hat takes its cue from the sport hat, and resembles it more or less, it is sometimes difficult to make up one's mind just which of the last millinery arrivals are to be classed as sport styles. But no one is concerned about the matter. "Late summer" includes everything the shops show, from now until early fall is ushered in, and "sport styles" are worn almost everywhere. The late summer hat is not burdened with much trimming, for it must contrive to look cool. There are exceptions to this rule in hats and trimmings made of the richest fabrics, among the best of which are hats, but generally the late summer hat has a flavor of outdoor-campings, jauntiness and divides popularly with sport styles that serve the same purposes.

In the group of hats shown here a beghorn faced with white crepe georgette leads off. It is a simple affair so far as trimming is concerned, for it has a band of ribbon about the crown with flat ornaments set at intervals unalike it. At the top an ornamental hat that will look good in August weather catches the eye.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moore have returned from Maryland where they attended the Commencement of their daughter Lillian from the Maryland College for Women. Their daughter and guests, Miss Elizabeth Beams, of Wheeling, W. Va., and Miss Blanche DeZarter of New York accompanied them home.

self with a braided pattern on the top crown and similar motifs on the brim at the front, back and sides. There is a crushed band of or-mandise about the crown. Other materials are used for late summer hats, as printed and embroidered voiles, cretonne and batiste.

Georgette crepe makes the lovely sport hat at the right of the group with its high, soft crown and smooth brim. A band about the crown made of folds of the crepe is as elegant a finish as the most exacting taste can demand.

If you are considering a sport hat give attention to the new and picturesque models called "tapestry hats" that are made of cretonne, with brims faced with braid. They are beautiful and practical and full of color, but untrimmed, except for a band of narrow ribbon, usually of velvet, about the crown.
